Textbook Policy and Agreement

The School District of Philadelphia Policy #224 on textbooks states that each student has the responsibility for proper care of school property and the school textbooks, supplies and equipment entrusted to his/her care.

Students are responsible for the care, maintenance and timely return of all textbooks assigned to them. The Frankford High School (School) requires students and/or parents to sign a compact acknowledging their responsibility for the care and prompt return of textbooks lent to them by the school.

Parents will be assessed penalties for lost or damaged textbooks. Imposition of one or more of the following penalties is permitted:

- A charge for the replacement of textbook(s) up to $ 85 per book;
- Withholding of a report card;
- Loss of privileges such as participation in extra-curricular activities, special events, and Move-Up Exercises.

This textbook agreement must be signed and returned to your child's teacher or office. Thank you for your cooperation.
